

CYOC at the 2025 New Year Gala

By: Peishi Yu

On January 4, 2025, people gathered at Gaithersburg High School in Gaithersburg, Maryland to ring in the New Year while tasting traditional Chinese dishes. The New Year marks not just a new beginning, but also a wonderful time for a family gathering and sharing. In this joyful event, food plays a major role.

Many alumni associations came with signature food from their region to share with everyone, ranging from savory sensations like spring rolls, bao buns, and roujiamo, desserts like steamed rice cakes and youtiao, to drinks like suanmeitang and milk tea. Every bite of food is like a taste of nostalgia, transporting people back to their hometowns while staying in a high school cafeteria.

The Capital Youth Outreach Club (CYOC) also prepared many delicacies, like cold noodles, douhua, seaweed salad inari, egg tarts, fried dumplings, wood ear salad, fruit pudding, tea eggs, and fruit tea.

These foods were extremely popular and well-received with the customers, proven when CYOC won first place in the voting segment of which association had the best food. They were followed by Zhejiang University and Wuhan University.

In addition to the fabulous food, there was also a riddle guessing game for prizes; a place where children loved to test their smarts for a prize. After the festival, there was also a lively gala full of spectacular performances and inspirational leaders giving their words of wisdom, Like Xie Feng, the ambassador of China to the United States. All in all, this event was a celebration of culture and food that brought people closer together.
